

Install Instructions

For Windows users:

1. Find the installation package suitable for your computer system version
2. Download the package
3. Decompressing the package and find the file with the suffix named .exe
4. Open this file, following the instructions to install this software for you on your target folder.
5. After finishing installation, close this dialog. You can run PiperNet on your computer now.

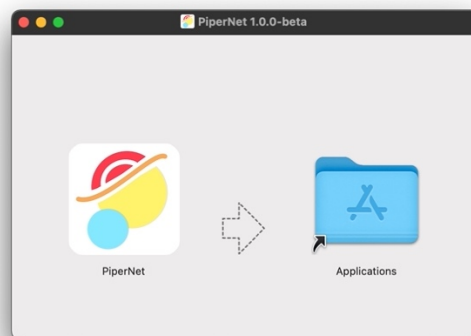

6. To uninstall the software, go to the root directory and find the file Uninstall PiperNet.exe. Click this file and follow the instructions to uninstall PiperNet.

For Macintosh users:

1. Find the installation package suitable for your computer system version
2. Download the package
3. Decompressing the package and find the file with suffix .dmg
4. Open this file, drag PiperNet into Application folder, then this software is installed.

5. Now you can launch PiperNet on your computer.
Warning: If there is a security warning on unverified developer, open user setting, click Open Anyway button in General setting in Security & Privacy. Then click to open this file again.
6. To uninstall the software, go to the Application folder and move this software to trash.